AUSD’s Parent Empowerment Summit

A resource fair for parents

Presentation Sessions

Empowering Parents!
Navigating the educational system requires an understanding of how it works, and taking charge of your role as a parent. Opening our Parent Summit are nationally recognized motivational speakers Dr. Darlene Willis and Marsha Dodson. They come to us with extensive backgrounds in working with parents and youth, and bring a common sense approach to helping parents realize the power they have to make positive changes in the lives of their children.

From Cyber Bullying to Digital Safety
Media and technology are evolving at a dizzying pace, bringing opportunities and challenges that are new to this generation. Parents will get an overview of the new media landscape, the impact it has on their children, and what they can do to keep their children safe, smart, and responsible online. Presented by Emilia Mrak, Alameda Police Department & Martha Lopez, AUSD

College, Making it Happen!
Parents and young students benefit when they know what is expected of them and how to prepare for their future! It’s never too early for parents to understand what is required to pursue a higher education degree. This session provides valuable information on the the skills necessary to get an early start in preparing for college. Presented by Marc Strong, Cal State University East Bay

Connect Early, Connect Often
How can the drama of conflict between adolescents and parents be reduced? Effective communication is the key! Join us to learn more about your Tween and Teens. Discover how you can optimize healthy family relationships and minimize conflict. Walk-away with a renewed sense of connection and a plan of action to get your family communicating more! Presented by Ms. Carolyn Morgane, Counselor, Alameda Family Services
